

I Will Praise You In This Storm!

Date: July 8th, 2018

Text: Matthew 14:22-33

Passage Summary: At the heart of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ is _____, and it is essential to realize that Jesus will work persistently to develop that _____ over the course of our life and ministry of the gospel.

180 Degree Truth #1: See that Jesus develops our faith by giving us a greater _____ of who He really is, oftentimes in the midst of a _____! (14:22-33)

Application: Recognize that when a greater revelation of Jesus comes to you in a storm, He is more willing to...

- _____ you than you think! (v.22-27)

Remember: When a greater revelation of Jesus comes to you in a storm, take heart; though you are _____, you know I _____, and because you do, you don't have to be afraid!

- _____ your _____ than you think! (v.28-31a)

Remember: When a greater revelation of Jesus comes to you in a storm, take heart; He is a lot _____ than you think, and much more willing to come to your _____ than you could ever realize, and because He is, you don't have to be afraid!

- _____ you than you think! (v. 31b-32)

Remember: When a greater revelation of Jesus comes to you in a storm, take heart; He is the _____ yesterday, today and forever, and _____ He is, you don't have to be afraid!

Core Conviction to Live By: Resolutely determine that while storms are never fun, at the same time, you will never view them the same, for through these storms come some of the greatest revelations of who our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ really is in our lives; can you _____ Him in the _____?

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever."

Hebrews 13:8

"I had never seen Jesus as I saw Him then. I had seen Him as powerful. I had seen Him as wise. I had witnessed His authority and marveled at His abilities. But what I witnessed last night I know I'll never forget. I saw God. The God who can't sit still when the storm is too strong. The God who lets me get frightened enough to need Him and then comes close enough for me to see Him. The God who uses my storms as His path to come to me. I saw God. It took a storm for me to see Him. But I saw Him. And I'll never be the same."

Max Lucado